
Ladies and gentlemen my name is Dr. M. N. Dlodlu the education coordinator at IDE, I am coordinating the education programmes

First of all, ladies and gentlemen let me join all the voice to congratulate you for being admitted at the University of Swaziland, to pursue the various academic careers in your life take this opportunity with both hands and appreciate this opportunity. I come from the Shisweleni region in the rural areas, now as a coordinator may I remind you that you are not part-time learner but you are a learner in a distance that means you are a distant learner as opposed to a part-time learner you are fully engaged in your academic activities on daily basis reading and writing to you is not a part-time activity, it is a daily activity the only difference is that, it is happening while you are at a distance, therefore I am appealing for an attitude that will exercise discipline that is responsible at all cost, you will be receiving your modules and I invite you to read these modules on daily basis. Interact with the course lecturers using the Moodle learning management system Once you register with the University, please take yourself that you are now in a contract with the University a contract has some obligatory issues or responsibilities such as writing of tests writing assignments, submitting school work timely

Do not compile excuses why work was not done, instead do the work that was given to you timely and submit. Another thing that I would like to appeal to all of you is that do inform me when you are about to take major decisions such as deferring a course or deferring your studies due to unforeseen circumstances such as finances please do communicate seek advice Let everything you do be official Do not just disappear anyhow Do not abscond we need to know where you are Give it a call where possible, just call Seek for advice,

My number is 76118998

I am the coordinator for the following programmes B.Ed Primary Language Arts, B.Ed Primary Social Studies
B.Ed Secondary Humanities B.Ed Secondary Business Studies and Post graduate Certificate in Education that is PGCE All the programmes that are offered by the University through IDE, the Education Programmes, I am the Coordinator for those programmes Ladies and gentlemen ,I thank you, and my request is that be disciplined, and keep playing with these words, that winners never quit and quitters never win.I thank you
